

RECTOR'S CIRCLE INAUGURATED

Montréal / January 6, 1989 --- Concordia University Rector and Vice Chancellor Patrick Kenniff inaugurated the Rector's Circle, a designation of honour for the top echelon of personal donors to the university. The event was marked by a dinner on December 12 for charter members of the Rector's Circle at the Vice-Regal Lounge of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel.

The dinner was co-sponsored by five of Concordia's most generous benefactors -- William Stinson, President and CEO of Canadian Pacific Ltd. and National Chairman of the recently-completed $25 million Capital Campaign, Leonard Ellen, Chairman of Leonard Ellen Canada Inc., Peter Howlett, President of Centre d'Accueil Le Portage, Richard Renaud, Executive Chairman of Dynamic Capital, and Jonathan Wener, Chairman of Canderel Ltd.

Charter members of the Rector's Circle are donors who pledged a minimum of $10,000 to Concordia University; they have lifetime membership in the Circle. Annual memberships are accorded to donors who make gifts of $2,000 or more on an individual basis, or through family foundations, partnerships, sole proprietorship, or closely-held companies.

Dr. Kenniff made a special presentation of a marble sculpture by Boston-born and Loyola College-educated artist Edward Heath to William Stinson in recognition of his work in Concordia's first capital campaign.

-30-

For additional information, contact DONNA VARRICA, Public Relations Officer, at (514) 848-4884.